

pick out the three people that had had the most impact on their lives, I think very few Americans, even very few Members of this Congress, would determine that one of those people was the President of the United States or that one of those people was a Governor of a State or that one of those people was even a Member of Congress. I think the overwhelming majority of people in our country, and certainly in this House, would think of, as they thought of people that had affected their lives, they would think of a mother and a father, they would think of grandparents, a Sunday school teacher. Almost everybody, if asked to name three people, would name a teacher, would name a member of that profession whose job it is to really expand human potential. There is no greater calling.

And as we recognize the teachers this week and as we appreciate teachers, I want to take a minute to reflect on one of my teachers. As I thought about the teachers I had had throughout school, I had a long, long list of great teachers, but one of my teachers, my 6th grade teacher, Mrs. Norma Knight, who is still living in Springfield, MO, really had an impact on me.

I have a picture of her here today, in fact. I have not had a picture that large of Mrs. Knight in my office for my entire career, but perhaps I should have, because she was the first person that really convinced me that it was OK to read.

Mr. Speaker, I ask unanimous consent to be given 1 additional minute.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The gentleman is only allowed 1 minute under this order of business. The gentleman's time has expired.

Mr. BLUNT. Well, Mr. Speaker, I appreciate her efforts and appreciate the great job she did as a classroom teacher and her inspiration to me.

ANNOUNCEMENT BY THE SPEAKER PRO TEMPORE

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Members are reminded that they should avoid references to visitors in the gallery and to the television audience.

□ 1415

IN MEMORY OF SIXTH GRADE TEACHER NETTIE MESSINGER ON TEACHER APPRECIATION DAY

(Mr. RANGEL asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. RANGEL. Mr. Speaker, let me join with my colleagues. I did not come to speak on this subject, but just this Friday I attended the funeral of a sixth grade teacher that I had. She was more than an inspiration to one of the worst kids in the classroom, which was CHARLIE RANGEL, but it was fantastic that the more success I received politically, the better she thought I was as a student. How quickly they forget. I was so blessed to have had her, not only as a sixth grade teacher in Nettie Messinger but as someone who counseled me after I got out of the service, returned to high school and went on to college and law school.

There were so many, many students that she took this very, very personal relationship with. She did not just let you play hookey, she had to come by your house to let your parents know that you missed school.

On behalf of all of the students from old PS 89, some that get on TV and many others that do not, let me thank the teachers that follow the high tradition of real teaching as Mrs. Nettie Messinger did and join my colleagues in thanking all of our teachers, especially those in the public school system.

SUPPORT BIPARTISAN BALANCED BUDGET AGREEMENT

(Mr. FOX of Pennsylvania asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. FOX of Pennsylvania. Mr. Speaker, Thomas Jefferson was an enemy of deficit spending. In fact, he was so hostile to the idea that Government could saddle future generations with debt that he considered deficit spending a moral evil. He once wrote:

We shall consider ourselves unauthorized to saddle posterity with our debts, and morally bound to pay them ourselves; and consequently within what may be deemed the period of a generation, or the life of the majority.

Well, we have ignored the words of Thomas Jefferson for too long. America is over $5 trillion in debt. Our children and grandchildren have been saddled with a debt that they did not create. We think that is wrong. In fact we think it goes against everything America stands for. The American dream means leaving a legacy of opportunity to our children and grandchildren, not $5 trillion in debt.

Let us heed the words of Thomas Jefferson and support the bipartisan balanced budget agreement.

TRIBUTE TO COACH JERRY FAUST ON TEACHER APPRECIATION DAY

(Mr. BOEHNER asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute.)

Mr. BOEHNER. Mr. Speaker, this week is Teacher Appreciation Week and many of my colleagues today have been to the floor of the House to recognize teachers who have had an impact on their lives. In my case, I had such a teacher. His name was Jerry Faust who taught at Moeller High School. Beyond being a teacher there, he also was the head football coach. Myself and my eight brothers went to Moeller High School in Cincinnati. Many of us had Coach Faust not only as a coach but also as a teacher. He is someone who had tremendous impact not only on my life but on many of my colleagues in that school, teaching us to be leaders, teaching us to fight for what we believe in. I think it was Coach Faust who taught all of us in my family that there is nothing in this world that you cannot accomplish, nothing that you cannot succeed at if you are willing to work hard enough and if you are willing to make the sacrifices that are necessary. I think it is because of people like Jerry Faust, people like a lot of great teachers around America that a lot of us are here. It is really the basis of what has made America great.

Congratulations to all teachers in America.

TRIBUTE TO MIDDLE SCHOOL TEACHER JEAN KASK

(Mr. QUINN asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. QUINN. Mr. Speaker, I too want to join my good friend, the gentleman from Ohio [Mr. BOEHNER] and my dear friend, the gentleman from New York [Mr. RANGEL], in paying tribute to our many teachers all across the country. In my particular district in Buffalo and western New York as a former middle school teacher myself, I would like to pay a special tribute today to our middle school world affairs/social studies teacher Jean Kask who is now retired. Mr. Speaker, when I walked over here from my office today and saw the hundreds of students right outside the building, it reminded me of those world affairs trips that Mrs. Kask would bring to this city, to this very floor, 300 eighth graders for 4 days for many, many, many years. The interesting thing about Mrs. Kask is while she had those skills that were important in the classroom, she also taught other teachers. I consider myself to be luckier than all the students she had because I taught alongside of her and learned just as much as the students did, if not more.

Mr. Speaker, I salute Jean Kask of Orchard Park Middle School and all of our teachers throughout the district and the country in this very important week.

PERIODIC REPORT ON NATIONAL EMERGENCY CAUSED BY LAPSE OF EXPORT ADMINISTRATION ACT—MESSAGE FROM THE PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES (H. DOC. NO. 105-80)

The SPEAKER pro tempore (Mr. SNOWBARGER) laid before the House the following message from the President of the United States; which was read and, together with the accompanying papers, without objection, referred to the Committee on International Relations and ordered to be printed:

To the Congress of the United States:

As required by section 204 of the International Emergency Economic